Dear Bill:

I would like to invite the continued participation of the Central Intelligence Agency in the Atlantic Council's Fellowship Program for the 1985-86 academic year.

This will be the fifth year of our Fellows Program. During the current year, we have officers in our program from the Departments of State and Defense, USIA, the Library of Congress, and the private sector. In addition, we have several international Visiting Fellows in residence.

We have been extremely pleased with the substantive contributions and excellent working relationships of [redacted] Senior Fellow from the CIA in 1983/84. Mrs. [redacted] has been an active, articulate, and essential participant in numerous Council activities. While she joined in various seminars, round-table discussions, and other programs of the Council, her main interest was focussed on the conceptual planning of our forthcoming project on US and Western Policy toward the Soviet Union in the coming decade. [redacted] quickly established herself as an important and responsible contributor to the work of the Council. In addition, she was able to research and write several articles for publication, and attended numerous briefings and lectures in her area of expertise. Clearly, she was exposed to an intellectual environment that will enhance her potential for senior policy and leadership positions in her subsequent career at the Agency.

We believe that the Fellowship Program provides outstanding individuals with an opportunity to further expand their knowledge and understanding of international affairs through a program of individual study and research, and through extensive participation in the Council's program of meetings and working groups.

During the year they are with us, Senior Fellows have the opportunity to investigate a wide range of political, economic, security and informational problems and multilateral means of dealing with them. They are able to meet, hear and work with the exceptionally qualified present and former civilian and military government officials, business leaders and academics who make up the Council's Board of Directors and its Committees and Working Groups. The Working Groups which will be operating during the coming year include:

- o US Policy Toward the Soviet Union: A Long-Term Western Perspective, 1985-2000.
- o Avoiding War and Controlling Arms: Toward the Year 2000.
- o The President, the Executive Branch and the Congress in Foreign Policy.
- o The Successor Generation.
- o Young Leaders Seminars.
- o US-Japan Energy Relationships in the 1980s.
- o Energy Supply and Use in Developing Countries: A Fresh Look at Western (OECD) Interests and Policy Options.
- o Strengthening Interparliamentary Consultation: A Pacific Caucus.
- o Taiwan in the Next Decade: Western Interests and Options.
- o The Interrelationship of Atlantic and Pacific Security: Allied Interests and US Policy Options.

Participation in the work of these groups provides a Senior Fellow with the opportunity to secure wider understanding and perspectives of these problems and of the inter-relationship of political, economic, security and psychological factors. Fellows will be chosen from Agency nominees by a Selection Committee made up of selected Directors of the Council and which I will chair.

The Fellowships are scheduled for one year, usually commencing in September. In lieu of tuition, there will be a resident fee of $7,000 per year per Fellow. Nominations should be addressed to me at your earliest convenience.

We hope you will join with us in continuing this Fellowship Program.

Sincerely,

Kenneth Rush

Dear Bill:

I am writing to thank you for the Agency's participation in our Senior Fellows Program this year and to encourage your continued involvement.

During the past year, [ ] our Senior Fellow from the CIA, has made a substantial contribution to the work of the Atlantic Council. She has concentrated her attention on our project involving US and Western Policy Toward the Soviet Union, drafting concept papers and actively participating in planning sessions. She also has been involved in working group sessions for other projects and has joined in various seminars and round-table discussions. These activities have put her in contact with numerous leaders in the foreign policy field. [ ] has also been able to pursue her own program of study, research, and travel during the course of the year, thus broadening her area of expertise. Her experience of the past year clearly will enhance her ability to contribute to the work of the Agency in the years ahead.

I regret that the Agency does not currently have a candidate to participate in our Senior Fellows Program for 1984-85 as I believe both the Council and the Agency as well as the Fellow have benefited from the association. We remain open to such participation and look forward to an ongoing relationship.

Warm regards

Kenneth Rush

means of dealing with them. They are able to meet, hear and work with the exceptionally qualified present and former civilian and military government officials, business leaders and academics who make up the Council's Board of Directors and its Committees and Working Groups. The Working Groups which will be operating during the coming year include:

- o US and Western Policy Toward the Soviet Union: 1985-1995
- o Arms Control and the NATO Alliance
- o The President, the Congress, and the Conduct of US Foreign Policy
- o The Successor Generation
- o Young Leaders Seminars
- o US-Japan Energy Relationships in the 1980s
- o Future Trade Relations
- o International Monetary Problems.

Participation in the work of these groups provides a Senior Fellow with the opportunity to secure wider understanding and perspectives of these problems and of the inter-relationship of political, economic, security and psychological factors. Fellows will be chosen from Agency nominees by a Selection Committee made up of selected Directors of the Council and which I will chair.

The Fellowships are scheduled for one year, usually commencing in September. In lieu of tuition, there will be a resident fee of $7,000 per year per Fellow. Nominations should be addressed to me at your earliest convenience.

We hope you will join with us in continuing this Fellowship Program. Enclosed for your information is a brochure that details the Council's substantive work program.

Sincerely,

Kenneth Rush

The Honorable
William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, DC 20505

Dear Mr. Director:

On behalf of Ken Rush, who is out of Washington for several weeks, and in particular on behalf of our Senior Fellows, I want to express deep appreciation to you and your colleagues for yesterday's warm welcome and substantive briefings. I was particularly heartened to learn from you of the health and vigor of the Agency, the renewed support that it has garnered under your leadership, and the attractive career goal that it has become for a new generation of young American professionals.

Sincerely,

James R. Huntley
